"Super Bon-Bon Modern Magazine Perfect Hotel!"

Reviewed June 7, 2011 - NEW

These kids, these design kids with their chartreuses and their scarlets and their polka dots the size of drink coasters! I tell you, these modern kids are leaving their mark all over Seattle, and this Maxwell fellow chose them to design his splendid hotel. Maxwell is a smart hotelier!

It was like staying in a Dwell magazine spread. Seriously. Free coffee in the lobby, too.

I love the Maxwell Hotel. I regret not stealing a coffee mug from the room.

Super-gorgeous, super-modern, with super-comfy beds, a super-nifty shower, soft white towels, and a Seattle location that is very walkable and central, without being too close to the bustle of downtown. PERFECTO!

Stayed May 2011, traveled with family
